

North Star Project Team

The North Star project team is made of The Imaginarium's staff of science educators, our partners at UAA, and a group of advisors and evaluators from around the state as well as folks from outside Alaska. More details coming soon.